FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

Middlebury Citizens Issue Strong Statement for Judge Weeks.

A statement in favor of the candidacy of Judge John E. Weeks for Lieutenant-Governor over the signatures of Messrs. T. M. Chapman, Willis N. Cady, and Allan Calhoun, has appeared in the State papers this week. The statement is as follows:

"The claims of John E. Weeks upon the Republican nomination for Lieutenant-Governor of Vermont rest upon his character as a man, his experience as a legislator, his fidelity and usefulness as a State official, and his proved ability as a business man and as a presiding officer.

"Judge Weeks has spent his life in Addison County, an active farmer and business man, and no man in Vermont stands higher in the respect of his neighbors for uprightness and strength of character. He is the kind of man people trust and to whom they go for counsel. Those who know him best are his warmest admirers. He is a natural leader, has long been active in public affairs, and his record in every position of trust has been clean and honorable.

"Judge Weeks would come to the Lieutenant-Governorship straight from a successful experience as presiding officer of the lower House, having been Speaker in 1915. It is generally agreed that he made one of the best speakers Vermont has ever had. Fair and square toward all, never carried away by partisanship, not undertaking to dictate, he commanded the respect and affection of his fellow-legislators to an unusual degree. As a member of the last two legislatures and a State officer for the past ten years he is thoroughly informed on the business of the State, and is in position to render invaluable service in the coming session.

"Judge Weeks' chief interest in life is not in his private affairs, nor in political promotion, but in the unfortunate citizens of our State in our penal institutions, especially the boys and girls in the Industrial School. For eighteen years he has been a trustee of that school, and since the organization of the Penal Board under the late Fletcher D. Proctor in 1906 he has been its chairman. Under his leadership the Industrial School has been rebuilt, not only in buildings, but also in spirit and character. It is no longer a place of punishment, but a real school where boys and girls who have been neglected and abused are given a chance and become worthy and useful citizens. Judge Weeks knows these children by name, and they know him and honor and love him. He has spent time and money for their welfare, and the high rank which the Industrial School has attained—and it stands as one of the best in the United States—is due largely to his efforts.

"Judge Weeks is a farmer. He owns today the farm on which he was born, and makes it pay. He is a business man, one of the most successful in the State. He is the friend of workingmen, not in words on the stump but in everyday relations with them and in votes as a legislator. He is a representative of the plain, honest people of Vermont, a man they can trust and count on every time. He is a man of ability as a leader, as his record proves. He is the sort of man Vermont will do well to put forward. Entangled by no alliances with any candidate for any other office, if chosen Lieutenant-Governor he will discharge the duties of the office with no other purpose than to do his utmost for the good of Vermont.

"Addison County, which has had only one Governor or Lieutenant-Governor for forty-four years, presents John E. Weeks for the second place on the Republican ticket with confidence that no better candidate could be chosen.

"On your primary ballot September 12th, under Lieutenant Governor, put a cross opposite the name of John E. Weeks."

FORMER MIDDLEBURY MAN NOMINATED FOR U. S. SENATE.

Charles N. Pray, a former resident of Middlebury and student in Middlebury College, has been nominated by the Republicans of Montana as their candidate for United States Senator. Montana holds a direct primary and Mr. Pray was the successful Republican. He was Congressman-at-large from Montana for three terms, but was defeated for re-election in the Republican catastrophe of 1912. Montana is normally Republican and Mr. Pray's election to the Senate is believed to be assured.

In college he was a member of the class of 1890. He graduated from the Chicago College of Law in 1891. He was admitted to the bar of Montana in 1892 and has since practiced law at Fort Benton in that State.

CLOSE OF MIDDLEBURY FAIR.

Fred W. Wins Free-For-All in Straight Heats.

The 72nd annual fair of the Addison County Agricultural society came to a close Friday afternoon, the last day crowd being estimated at 7000 people. The races were the principal attraction, although the full program was carried out.

The free-for-all was won in straight heats by Fred W., whose best time was 2:09½. It had been hoped that the track record of 2:08½ would be broken in this race, the management having offered $100 to the driver accomplishing this feat. Our Colonel, who started in the free-for-all, finished third in the first heat and went lame while scoring for the second heat, being drawn.

The 2:20 trot, carrying a purse of $1000 went to Cochato Maid in straight heats, the fastest mile being trotted in 2:16½.

Baron Leyburn won the 2:15 trot in straight heats, trotting the second mile in 2:18½.

The Middlebury baseball team defeated Crown Point, N. Y., on the grounds in the morning by a score of 5 to 4. Murch and Reynolds served as battery for the home team and McIntyre and Brower for the visitors.

A half-mile running race, heat two heats out of three was run off Friday and was won by B. R. Parker; second, Fred Nash; third, Edwin Gardner; time, 1:30½, 1:32½.

DIRECTORS MEET.

The directors of the Patrons Co-operative Fire Insurance company met at the Grange Hall at Middlebury September 4, at 2 p. m., the first year for business having closed September 1. The losses for the year are just one hundred dollars and all settled. As there are funds enough for all purposes in the treasury the directors voted not to make any assessment this year. This makes a saving to those who are insured in this company of from three to four dollars per thousand for the past year.
